

Opposed to CBA attempt to change Indiana telephone privacy law. Any bank or other business can send us a letter. Not only are unsolicited calls annoying and disruptive, but also dangerous. Identity theft is very real, and we have no way of knowing exactly who is calling.